Posting Scores on golfcanada.ca

We encourage members to post hole-by-hole entries in order to ensure the correct Equitable Stroke Control (ESC) adjustment is made. By posting hole-by-hole, the system will automatically make the necessary adjustments based on a golfer's current Golf Canada Handicap Factor.

COURSE NOT FOUND IN DIRECTORY

What if the course played is not in the Course Directory?

If the club a golfer is looking for is not listed, please notify Golf Canada at members@golfcanada.ca or 1.800.263.0009 x399. All courses in Canada should appear in the course directory. Please note that courses that do not maintain membership in Canada do not have a valid course and slope rating and cannot be used in maintaining a valid handicap.
